

Please support LPFM. In our listening area we have support for community-based news programming as well as collaborative programming with local high schools and community organizations. None of this is done by locally available noncommercial stations. We have collected documented support for a community station.